WHAT THE SOUTH WANTS.

A Letter from Henry Watterson or the Subject. New Youk, Dec. 18—in response to a re-quest made by the World the following letter has been received:

"To the Editor of the World:

"The South sets up no sectional claim whenever, and wants only an honest administration of the Government. The President-sleet to the Government. The President-sleet to the Construction of the Government. The President-sleet to the Country, and to say nothing of invidious distinctions, the list of representative and capable men is too large for individual specification. There are but two exhibet places in which the south is particularly inwhich needs reforming, and the other is the Fostoffice Department, which has never dealt very liberally by the South with regard to fast mail service.

SENATOR BAYARD was the subject of much curiosity by other Democratic Senators upon his return to Washington from Albany, his visit to the latter city being regarded in connection with a Cabinet appointment, which was understood by some to be opposed by Tilden upon the ground that Bayard and Thurnan favored the electorial commission, while others think that Tilden is without influence because it was mainly his friends that cut the successful ticket in New York.

A REGULAR mountain vendetta is likely to grow out of the lynching of John Mar-tin at Farmers City, Rowan County, by a mob a few days ago. The order by which he was taken from the jail at Winwhich he was taken from the jail at Win-chester is pronounced a forgery and it is alleged that he was shot by the men who processed to be guarding him. There is great excitement over the affair and as Martin's friends have sworn vengeance further shedding of blood is looked for. The latest intelligence is that seventy-five men rre under arms on each side, camped out and ready to fight.

A tiger in the act of eating a buffalo has been accidentally photographed in India. The poor creature, which was focused, when our popped the tiger from a neighboring wood. The arist released the spring shutter of the instrument just as the buffalo was laid low by the beast's paw, and the 'san picture' was taken before the dying moment occurred. It is said to be a most traget tableau, and a great achievement in the art of photography.
